Haverhill Festival is an extra special mix of comedy, music, theatre community events, street theatre and activities for all the family. It showcases local talent alongside internationally renowned artists.

With many events remaining free to attend, the Festival maintains its original aspirations of being a community-led celebration, promoting leisure and arts activities, encouraging and providing opportunities for participation and adding to the quality of cultural life in Haverhill.

If you haven't previously experienced Haverhill Street Festival make sure you don't miss out this year. Headlining the day, on Saturday 21 June, is a specially commissioned piece of theatre, The Station by festival favourites Bash Street Theatre. Be prepared for a dramatic train crash, a dare-devil rescue and some great comedy action in this hour-long, silent show.

The Street Festival also includes (on stilts) the ever-enthusiastic footballer Willy Wreckham and irritatingly accurate referee Bernard Bookem, plus an enormous, animatronic, smoke-breathing Dragon led down the high street by a Goblin Queen.
